

Among the Churches

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

All of the services were well attended Sunday. Mrs. Birtie Mathis of 1726 Lydia Avenue was present at our morning service and said many good things about our Church and Sunday School. We were glad to see her and want her to know that she is always welcome at our services.

Among the visitors at our Church Sunday were: Miss L. S. Shorty, Ferris Street; Mrs. Josie Berry, Centralia, Mo.; Mr. Ward, Fort Worth, Tex.; Mr. John Yocum, Fulton, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, Dallas, Tex.; Mr. E. Johnson, Omaha, Neb., and Mr. J. D. Brooks of Chicago, Ill. We invite them all to come and see us again. Miss Cora Pearson, 566 Charlotte Street, is visiting in St. Paul, Minn. We wish her a pleasant stay. Miss Ruth Barber is on the sick list but is better at this writing. Her many friends were glad to see her and wish for her a speedy recovery. Mr. W. M. Hill and Mrs. Dossia are reported much better.

EBENEZER A. M. E. CHURCH.

"Quenching the Thirst." "Whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely." was the subject and text used by Dr. Osborne in delivering a soul-stirring sermon to a large audience, Sunday morning. There were eight additions to the Church. Class 12, Brother A. C. Gilliam, Leader, was the Banner Class, Class 3, with the help of its efficient Secretary, Mrs. Carrie Watkins, is coming to the front. The Osborne Brotherhood elected the following officers: W. M. Watkins, President; O. L. Ramsey, Vice President; W. H. Fields, Treasurer. Already the President has begun plans to make it the strongest organization in the Church and urges the men of the Church to meet every Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Florence Cole Talbert, the noted dramatic soloist, will appear in recital in Kansas City, Sept. 16th, for Ebenezer and Centennial. Conference is September 29th. Please pay your Dollar Money.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. J. C. Bell, Pastor. Services were well attended. Sunday the Pastor preached two excellent sermons. The Sunday school is growing. Sunday is our last Quarterly Meeting this Conference year. Rev. A. B. Harris will preach at 3 o'clock. The Ministers of the city and their congregations are invited to the afternoon services.

A grand picnic was given by Mrs. Mamie Wright, Mrs. Jennie Smith, and Miss Agnes Walker in honor of Miss Howard. An elegant Menu was served. Several friends were invited and declared they had spent a delightful day at Swope Park, where the picnic was held. We hope Miss Howard will enjoy herself while in our city.
